IV CETT FUNDACIÓ AWARDS

FOR THE BEST OF CETT-UB MASTER'S FINAL PROJECTS

Academic Year
2025-2026

#ThroughSociety

Purpose of the award

CETT Fundació, established in 2000 by Mr. Gaspar Espunya, promotes education, research, and knowledge in tourism, hospitality, and gastronomy.

In this context, and as a socially committed organization, it launches the CETT Fundació Award for the Best Master's Final Projects (TFM) to encourage students to develop their work with excellence, rigor, and quality.

Award conditions

The scholarship can be used within two academic years after completing the master's degree.

The scholarship cannot be combined with other discounts.

If the award is not used under the established conditions, it will become void.

In group projects, the award will be granted to a maximum of two members.

Eligibility

The award is open to all students enrolled in CETT-UB master's programs who have submitted their Master's Final Project during the 2025–2026 academic year (between September 2025 and September 2026) and have obtained a grade of 9 or higher (Excellent or Honors).

How to apply

Candidates must complete the application form available on the CETT Fundació website.

Deadline: September 28, 2026 at 23:59

Required documents:

- Scientific article (research-oriented) or dissemination article (professional-oriented)
- Full Master's Final Project (TFM)

Projects may be submitted in Spanish, Catalan, or English.

Participation implies acceptance of these rules.

The award

The awarded candidate will receive:

A scholarship of up to €600 towards the tuition of the first year of the PhD in Tourism (excluding university fees)

Co-supervision of the doctoral thesis by a CETT-UB PhD holder

Automatic submission of the TFM article to the REDINTUR Forum

The award aims to promote academic progression towards doctoral studies.

Jury

The jury will be composed of industry professionals, CETT Fundació representatives, and CETT-UB academic staff.
