Year	4º	Credits	3 cr ECTS
In-class hours	60 hours	Hours of individual work	90 hours
Thematic Area	Business Organization and Human Resources Management	Course Type	Compulsory Subject

BRIEF COURSE DESCRIPTION

Good management means mastering skills that help the optimization of decision-making processes to be able to solve problems effectively; such skills include being able to identify pros and cons in decision-making and assessing possible side-effects in the fastest and most efficient way; other skills are for instance being able to face a negotiation process effectively while maintaining the right climate.

Business executives must have excellent academic training but also very defined skills to motivate employees. In this sense, this course aims to work on competencies such as assertiveness and emotional intelligence in a way that allows students to manage teams better and gives them a competitive edge when applying for a managerial position.

Additionally, the subject provides students with the necessary tools to develop their entrepreneurship and intra-entrepreneurship skills as a mechanism for personal and professional development.

BASIC SKILLS

BS04 – Students must be able to transmit information, ideas, problems and solutions to both specialized and non-specialized audiences.

GENERAL SKILLS
